Tis' The Season (Lice)

Once again we want to make sure we are taking all precautions to keep lice at bay. We have heard it is going around the schools, and we have had one family from the studio let us know that they had it.

There are numerous sites online on how to prevent and avoid it. Stay informed to keep it away. If you have any questions please let us know

Recital Information

General

The date of the recital is Saturday June 8th, 2013, with a mandatory rehearsal June 6th or 7th. We will be having two shows, a morning and evening show. I have a list of which classes will be in which shows. Tickets will be going on sale May 13th and all seats will be assigned. In order to purchase your tickets you must pay May as well as any other remaining balances. Each family will be allowed to get 8 tickets to start for each show, and later as families don't get their allotted 8, those seats become available for purchase. In years past everyone that has wanted extra seats has gotten them.

Costumes

Most of the costumes have arrived, we have more coming in shortly. In order to take them home you must pay off your complete costume balance as well as your February tuition. When you receive your costume, take great care of it, it is very hard to get replacements as the year progresses. If you have any issues with the costumes let us know as soon as possible, the sooner we can take care of it the better. We will have a book with a picture of the costumes, and what they will need as far as tights, shoes, and how to wear their hair. We will have an order form for tights as well. Don't wait till the last minute to get recital supplies, the dance stores get in short supply the closer we get to the recital.

Dancewear orders

We require a specific brand and color for each dance so the tights match perfectly in the recital. The costume books will be available towards the end of this month to check on color and style. You can order the tights through us, or get them at the local dance stores.
